On this date, Detective Greg Hagan came before the Prosecuting Attorney of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit and, being duly sworn (or having affirmed), stated that in Marion County, Indiana

COUNT I

Trey Bebley, Tyrone Mills, Kayla Woods, Takia Rice and Aurelious Woods, on or about July 3, 2012, did induce and/or cause the knowing killing of another human being, namely: Larretha Draughon, by engaging in affirmative conduct which resulted in the shooting of a deadly weapon at and against the person of Larretha Draughon, thereby inflicting mortal injuries upon Larretha Draughon, causing Larretha Draughon to die;

COUNT II

Trey Bebley, Tyrone Mills, Kayla Woods, Takia Rice and Aurelious Woods, on or about July 3, 2012, did induce and/or cause the knowing touching of Sanasha Brewer in a rude, insolent, or angry manner by engaging in affirmative conduct which resulted in the shooting of a deadly weapon, that is: a gun, at and against the person of Sanasha Brewer;

COUNT III

Trey Bebley, Tyrone Mills, Kayla Woods, Takia Rice and Aurelious Woods, on or about July 3, 2012, did induce and/or cause the knowing touching of Jasmine Jennings in a rude, insolent, or angry manner by engaging in affirmative conduct which resulted in the shooting of a deadly weapon, that is: a gun, at and against the person of Jasmine Jennings;

COUNT IV

Trey Bebley, on or about July 3, 2012, did attempt to commit the crime of Murder, which is to intentionally kill another human being, namely: Takia Rice, by engaging in conduct, that is: shooting a deadly weapon, that is: a gun at and against the person of Takia Rice, with the specific intent to kill Takia Rice, which conduct constituted a substantial step toward commission of said crime of Murder;

COUNT V

Aurelious Woods, on or about July 3, 2012, did attempt to commit the crime of Murder, which is to intentionally kill another human being, namely: Sanasha Brewer, by engaging in conduct, that is: driving a vehicle at and against the person of Sanasha Brewer, with the specific intent to kill Sanasha Brewer, broken leg and broken neck, which conduct constituted a substantial step toward commission of said crime of Murder;

COUNT VI

Tammy Carter, on or about July 3, 2012, having the care of McKenlee Scott, a dependent ten (10) years of age, did knowingly place McKenlee Scott in a situation that did endanger the life or health of McKenlee Scott, that is: taking the child after midnight to a location where Carter knew that a fight would occur with firearms would be present and/or taking the child to a location where multiple persons were shot and one person was killed;

COUNT VII

Tammy Carter, on or about July 3, 2012, having the care of Destiny Carter, a dependent sixteen (16) years of age, did knowingly place Destiny Carter in a situation that did endanger the life or health of Destiny Carter, that is taking the child after midnight to a location where Carter knew that a fight would occur with firearms would be present and/or taking the child to a location where multiple persons were shot and one person was killed;

COUNT VIII

Tammy Carter, on or about July 11, 2012, did give false information in the official investigation of the commission of a crime knowing the information to be false, to wit: lied about the presence of her ten (10) year old child at the presence of a shooting in which multiple persons were shot and one person was killed; further, that said act substantially hindered law enforcement in that by the time police were able to interview the child she claimed to have no recollection of the events.

all of which is contrary to statute and against the peace and dignity of the State of Indiana.

I swear or affirm under penalty of perjury as specified by I.C. 35-44-2-1 that the foregoing representations are true.

FOR PROBABLE CAUSE

STATE OF INDIANA, COUNTY OF MARION, SS:

Detective Greg Hagan swears (affirms) that:

On July 3rd, 2012 at 12:31 a.m. officers of the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department were dispatched to the Ben Davis Little League at 7450 West 21st Street on a report of a person shot. Officer Rod Bradway arrived in the area of West 21st Street and North Historic Oaks Boulevard and located a female, later identified as Jasmine Jennings, who had been shot one time in the right hip/leg. Jasmine was the front seat passenger in a silver 2007 Chrysler Sebring bearing IN plate number 406CEL. Skyler Butts was on scene and identified as the driver of the 2007 Chrysler Sebring. While giving aid to Jasmine Jennings, Officer Rod Bradway observed a gold 1997 Pontiac Grand Am bearing IN plate number SRE680 pull up at West 21st Street and Historic Oaks Boulevard with another female, later identified as Sanasha Brewer, who had been shot one time in the leg. Mercedes Harris was identified as the driver of the 1997 Pontiac Grand Am and Dorothy Jones was a passenger in the Grand Am. Officer Bradway requested the assistance of Wishard Medics and several medics responded to the scene. Jasmine Jennings and Sanasha Brewer were transported to Methodist hospital. While en route to West 21st Street and North Historic Oaks Boulevard, Wishard Medics observed a female, later identified as Takia Rice, in the 7400 block of West 21st Street. Takia Rice had been shot one time in the back. Wishard Medics immediately transported Takia Rice to Methodist hospital. Responding officers were told by the victims that a black male known to them as being Tyrone Mills (a.k.a. "Noodles") was involved in the shooting. Detectives Jason Leitze and Delbert Shelton responded to 7450 West 21st Street. Skyler Butts, Mercedes Harris and Dorothy Jones were transported to the homicide office to be interviewed.

On July 3rd 2012 at 1:05 a.m. officers of the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department were dispatched to 6030 Westhaven Drive on a report of two (2) people shot at this location. The 911 caller said that his grandson and a female had been shot during a fight at a park. Officer Dustin Danai arrived on scene and observed a black male later identified as Tyrone Mills standing next to a gold 2003 Chevrolet Malibu bearing IN plate number 585BPV. As Officer Danai approached Tyrone Mills he observed Tyrone Mills throw an empty gun holster to the ground. For officer safety, officer Danai handcuffed Tyrone Mills and determined that Tyrone Mills had been shot in the right leg. Once Tyrone Mills was secured, officer Danai checked the 2003 Chevrolet Malibu bearing IN plate number 585BPV for other occupants. Officer Danai observed a black female later identified as Larretha Draughon, lying face down on the rear floorboard of the 2003 Chevrolet Malibu. Larretha Draughon had suffered an apparent gunshot wound to the head. She was pronounced deceased at the scene at 1:15 a.m. by Wishard Medic 12, Med-Tech Haywood. Tyrone Mills was transported to Wishard hospital by Wishard medics.

I swear (affirm), under penalty of perjury as specified by IC 35-44-2-1, that the foregoing representations are true.

Affidavit for Probable Cause

From: Detective Greg Hagan

Detective Tom Lehn and I responded to 6030 Westhaven Drive. Detective Tom Lehn spoke with Latrecia Dupree who was in the residence at 6030 Westhaven Drive. She said she was at her apartment at 2172 Embassy Row, Apartment 235, Speedway, IN when her baby's father, Tyrone Mills, drove to her apartment in her Chevy Malibu car and said he had been shot. Latrecia Dupree then got into her car with her child and Tyrone Mills drove to his grandparent's home at 6030 Westhaven Drive where she noticed the deceased female in the back of the car. Sergeant Mike Jefferson and other officers went to 2172 Embassy Row, Apartment 235, Speedway, IN to insure there were no further injured persons and any potential evidence from the scene was not being destroyed in the apartment. They did not locate any other injured people and backed out of the apartment and secured the scene until a search warrant was obtained. Upon doing so Officer Phil Short found, parked in front of 2172 Embassy Row, Apt. 235, a blue 2000 Buick Century 4D bearing Indiana 2013 plate 964CEW with a gun holster in plain view inside the vehicle. This vehicle was registered to Latrecia Dupree. The vehicle was towed to MECA at 47 South State to be processed.

On July 3rd, 2012 at 11:40 a.m. Detective Sergeant Jeff Wager executed a signed and valid search warrant at 2172 Embassy Row, Apt. 235, Speedway, IN. Nothing was recovered during the course of that search.

On July 3rd, 2012 at 1:18 a.m. Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Dispatch was contacted by I.U. West hospital located at 1111 N. Ronald Reagan Parkway in Avon, Indiana. IU West medical staff advised that a black male who identified himself as Trey Bebley walked into the emergency room suffering from gunshot wounds to the left hand and right foot. Detective Harry Dunn responded to I.U. West hospital. Detective Dunn was told by I.U. West security officers they reviewed surveillance video which showed a dark blue Chevrolet pulling up to the emergency room entrance and Trey Bebley and a second black male wearing a red shirt exit the vehicle and walk into the emergency room while a third black male parked the vehicle in the parking lot. The third black male eventually walked into the emergency room and met up with the second black male wearing the red shirt. Both males exited the emergency room and returned to the vehicle and drove out of the parking lot. Trey Bebley was treated and released and upon his release Detective Dunn transported Trey Bebley to the homicide office to be interviewed.

On July 3rd 2012 at 12:43 a.m. Officer Natalie Layton observed a black Ford Contour, bearing Indiana In God We Trust plate OX4818, in the 7400 block of West 10th Street. The rear window of this vehicle had been shot out. Officer Layton initiated a traffic stop of this vehicle and identified the driver of the vehicle as Annettra Rice and the front seat passenger of the vehicle as Norrishia Hornes. Annettra Rice and Norrishia Hornes were detained and transported to the homicide office to be interviewed. The black Ford Contour bearing Indiana In God We Trust plate OX4818 was towed to Wheeler's towing.

I swear (affirm), under penalty of perjury as specified by IC 35-44-2-1, that the foregoing representations are true.

Crime Lab Technicians Kevin Winks, Justin Stall and Christine Ondek responded to and processed the various crime scene venues. CSI Winks and Stall processed the scene at the Ben Davis Little League at 7450 West 21st Street and the scene at West 21st Street and North Historic Oaks Boulevard. CSI Christine Ondek processed the scene at 6030 Westhaven Drive. CSI Kevin Winks recovered several items of evidence including twenty-nine (29) spent casings of various calibers and a Glock model 23 .40 caliber handgun serial number AMD322US. This handgun was recovered with the slide locked back and an empty magazine in the weapon.

On July 3rd, 2012 at 7:02 a.m. Detective Harry Dunn and I took a recorded statement from Trey Bebley. I read Trey Bebley the Advice of Rights waiver. Trey Bebley indicated that he understood his rights and was willing to give me a statement and signed the waiver of rights. Trey Bebley provided a cell phone number of 317-490-5075. Trey Bebley said he received a call from his mother Debbie Carter at approximately 12:00 a.m. on July 3rd. His mother told him that Trey's sister, Kayla Woods, was going to go fight another girl and she wanted Trey to go check on his sister. Trey then called his sister and Kayla told Trey where she was. Trey then went to the Ben Davis Little League parking lot in a black Oldsmobile Bravada which is registered to the mother of his children. When he pulled into the lot he saw approximately fifteen (15) people and several cars in the parking lot. Trey said it appeared that all of the people were there with his sister. A few minutes later, two more vehicles pulled into the parking lot and an unknown number of people exited both vehicles. Trey's sister Kayla Woods immediately started fighting with another female. Trey Bebley stated that he did not know the name of the other female. As the fight continued a crowd started to gather around the females "corralling" them. Trey attempted to stop the fight and told the crowd, "Don't touch my sister." Trey Bebley said a black male wearing a gray shirt showed a handgun and said, "Oh yeah?" and started shooting at him. Trey Bebley was shot in the finger on his left hand. He ran to his black Oldsmobile Bravada and ducked behind his vehicle as he was getting shot at by the black male in a gray shirt and a second black male in a red shirt. Trey Bebley said the black male that was shooting at him (the black male in the gray shirt) was firing from approximately fifteen feet away at which time Trey Bebley was shot in the right foot. Trey Bebley said the black male had to have been shooting underneath his vehicle and that was how he was shot in the right foot. Trey Bebley and his cousin Jesse Carter then got in his Oldsmobile and drove to his friend Brandon Cain's house and Trey, Jesse Carter and Brandon Cain drove in Brandon Cain's blue Chevrolet Impala to I.U. West Hospital. Trey instructed Jesse Carter to take his black Oldsmobile Bravada from Brandon Cain's house and drive it to Trey's girlfriend's house at 2038 Picadilly Place and park it there. I then showed Trey Bebley a photo array, line-up i.d. 10943 which contained a photograph of Tyrone Mills. Trey Bebley could not identify Tyrone Mills as the person that shot him. I then confiscated Trey Bebley's cell phone and he was then released. Security video from I.U. West Hospital showed a blue Chevrolet pull up to the Emergency Room door and showed Trey Bebley and Jesse Carter exit the vehicle and entered the emergency room. Brandon Cain eventually joined them in the emergency room. Jesse Carter and Brandon Cain left the emergency room, returned to the blue Chevrolet and exited the parking lot. On July 3rd, 2012 at 7:54 a.m. Officer Dennis Burtner went to 2038 Picadilly Place where he located a black 2000 Oldsmobile Bravada bearing Indiana 2012 plate OJ8193. This vehicle was towed to MECA at 47 South State to be processed.

On July 3rd 2012 Detective Harry Dunn went to Methodist hospital and showed Takia Rice a photo array, line-up I.D. 109438, which contained a photograph of Trey Bebley. Takia Rice said she was not one hundred percent certain, but she thought photograph number six, the photograph of Trey Bebley, was the person that shot her.

On July 3rd 2012 Detective Rodney Bradbum took a recorded statement from Skyler Butts. Skyler said she received a phone call from Jasmine Jennings who told her that Jasmine's friend was going to get into a fight. Skyler and Jasmine drove in Jasmine's car to the baseball field to watch the fight. The fight escalated and a lot of shots were fired. Skyler Butts said she saw a black male she knew as "Noodles" firing a gun. Skyler also said she saw other black males firing guns but she did not recognize them and could not describe them.

On July 3rd, 2012 at 11:29 a.m. Kayla Woods came to the Homicide office saying she wanted to make a statement. Detective Tom Lehn and I took a statement from Kayla Woods. Kayla Woods provided a cell phone number of 317-531-0741. Kayla Woods said that she had been having an ongoing "beef" with Takia Rice that started as far back as October of 2011 when the girls fought at a Halloween party at Indiana University. On June 30th 2012 Kayla was again contacted, via text messages and twitter by Takia Rice who was antagonizing Kayla and coaxing her to meet and fight. Kayla agreed to meet Takia at the Ben Davis Little League to fight. Kayla went with her father, Aurelious "Howard" Woods, and Jasmine Hosea in Kayla's blue Chevrolet Cavalier. Kayla's aunt Tammy Carter, Tammy's son Jesse Scott/Carter and Kayla's brother Trey Bebley were also present at the Little League. Kayla was waiting in the parking lot of the Little League when Takia Rice, Takia's sister Annetra Rice, Sanasha Brewer and two (2) black males pulled into the parking lot and parked. Takia Rice exited the vehicle and the two girls began to fight. Both girls ended up on the ground locked together in a stalemate for approximately fifteen (15) seconds. Kayla heard her brother Trey Bebley tell the group of people that had gathered around the two girls, "Back up away from my sister." Kayla then heard a person she knew to be Annetra Rice say, "That's alright cause we got pistols." Gunshots erupted and Kayla got up and saw a black male, whom she was later told by Skyler Butts and Jasmine Hosea was Tyrone Mills, a.k.a. Noodles, shooting a gun. A second light skinned black male wearing a red shirt was also firing a gun. Kayla Woods did not know the second gunman and did not see his face.

Kayla further stated that Jasmine Jennings got shot. Aurelious "Howard" Woods picked up Jasmine Jennings and put her into a car. During the gunfire Kayla said her brother, Trey Bebley, and her father, Aurelious "Howard" Woods, took cover behind Trey Bebley's car. Kayla then got into her car and Trey Bebley got into his car and fled the parking lot. Kayla Woods drove to her residence. Kayla Woods said that at no time during the fight or the shooting did she see anybody from her side with a gun and at no time did she see anybody from her side shoot a gun.

On July 4th, 2012 Detective Tom Lehn executed signed and valid search warrants on the following vehicles: (1) the 2003 Chevrolet Malibu 4 door bearing Indiana 2013 plate 585BPV; (2) the 2007 Chrysler Sebring 4-door bearing Indiana 2013 plate 406CEL; and (3) the 1997 gold Pontiac Grand Am bearing Indiana 2012 plate SRE680. On July 5th, 2012 Detective Lehn executed a signed and valid search warrant on the following vehicles: (1) the black 1998 Ford Contour bearing Indiana 2013 plate OX4818; (2) the black 2000 Oldsmobile Bravada bearing Indiana 2012 plate OJ8193 and (3) the blue 2000 Buick Century 4D bearing Indiana 2013 plate 964CEW. All vehicles listed above were processed by CSI Kevin Winks.

On June 5th, 2012 at 4:07 a.m., I went to 7724 Platini Place, Brandon Cain's residence, where I located a blue Chevrolet Impala bearing Indiana 2012 issue plate SDN444. This vehicle was registered to Brandon Cain. I requested a wrecker and the vehicle were towed to MECA at 47 South State to be processed. This vehicle was processed on July 6th, 2012 by CSI Mark Wallace.

On July 5th, 2012 Detective Tom Lehn and I took a recorded statement from Annettra Rice. She said that her sister Takia Rice and a girl she later learned was Kayla Woods had been arguing back and forth via Twitter. On July 2nd 2012 Annettra received a text from Takia. Takia said she was going to meet Kayla after work to fight Kayla. Takia Rice, Tyrone Mills (a.k.a. Noodles), Norrishia Hornes and Sanasha traveled in one car to the Ben Davis Little League and Annettra Rice and Laretha "La-La" Draughon traveled in Annettra's Ford Contour to the Ben Davis Little League parking lot. They pulled up and Takia Rice and Kayla Woods fought. Takia and Kayla eventually ended up on the ground together and the group of people that were there started to gather around the girls. Annettra Rice heard a person she knew to be Kayla Woods' brother and later identified as Trey Bebley say "I got a pistol nobody better jump in." to which Annettra's cousin Tyrone Mills replied "They didn't stop making guns when they made yours." Laretha "La-La" Draughon said "It is a one on one fight let them fight we don't need all these guns involved." Annettra Rice stated she then saw Trey Bebley shoot Takia Rice and Tyrone Mills return gunfire. A shootout erupted and Annettra Rice ran for cover. During the shootout Sanasha Brewer, Tyrone Mills and La-La were shot. Annettra said that during the shootout she saw a person that she knew to be Kayla Woods's father firing a gun. I then showed Annettra Rice a photo array line-up I.D. 109461 which contained a photograph of Trey Bebley. Annettra Rice picked photograph number 2, the photograph of Trey Bebley, identifying Trey Bebley as the person that shot her sister Takia Rice. I also showed Annettra Rice a photo array line-up I.D. 109513, which contained a photograph of Aurelious "Howard" Woods (Kayla Woods 'father'). Annettra Rice could not identify anyone in this photo array.

On July 5th, 2012 at 5:23 p.m. Detective Tom Lehn and I went to Methodist hospital where I took a recorded statement from Jasmine Jennings. Jasmine said that in October of 2011 Kayla Woods and Takia Rice had a fight. On June 30, 2012 Jasmine had a birthday party. Kayla Woods and Takia Rice's baby's father were present. Kayla went up to Takia's baby's father and asked him if he knew that she was the one that beat up Takia. Kayla then demonstrated how she beat up Takia in October of 2011. The following day Takia's baby's father told her what Kayla said and Kayla and Takia started exchanging acrimonious text messages and tweets on Twitter. Kayla called Takia's baby a derogatory name which upset Takia. Takia wanted to meet Kayla to fight. Jasmine Jennings told Kayla not to meet Takia. Kayla said she was going to fight her and was going to bring her dad with her because she knew he would "have her back."

Jasmine Jennings and Skyler Butts drove in Jasmine's Chrysler Sebring to Kayla Woods' house where Kayla was there with her father. Kayla said she was going to fight Takia at the Ben Davis softball diamonds. Kayla's father said he had a gun and if anyone interfered he was going to shoot them. He also told Kayla he did not think it was a good idea to fight there because it was next to the Indiana Women's Prison and there were no lights there. Kayla then received a phone call from Takia Rice and the girls agreed to meet at the Little League. After hanging up the phone, Kayla called several of her family members and asked them to meet at her house. Jasmine Jennings did not remember any details about the fight or the shooting. She was told by others that were present that she was caught in the cross fire and was shot. Jasmine Jennings suffered a through and through gunshot wound to the right thigh, which struck a main artery and damaged the nerves in her leg. Jasmine Jennings said she captured a portion of the fight on her cell phone video camera. Jasmine Jennings voluntarily surrendered her cell phone to me and I then took the phone to the I.M.P.D. video forensics unit and Detective Brett Seach recovered a sixteen (16) second video from the phone.

On July 5th 2012 at 6:21 p.m. Detective Tom Lehn and I took a recorded statement from Takia Rice who said that she has had an ongoing conflict with Kayla Woods for the last 2 years which escalated to Kayla continuously calling Takia telling her to meet her to fight. Takia agreed to meet Kayla at the softball field. Takia, her sister Annettra Rice, her cousin Tyrone "Noodles" Mills, Laretha "La-La" Draughon, Sanasha Brewer and Norrishia Hornes drove in 2 separate cars to the Ben Davis Little League softball field. As they pull into the gravel parking lot Takia saw 6 - 7 cars and several people standing around the cars. Takia got out of the car and as she walked toward Kayla, she heard a black female, who she thought was Kayla Woods' mother, say "Who's fighting who?" Takia and Kayla began to fight. The fight lasted 5-10 minutes and Takia and Kayla wound up on the ground. La-La stepped in and tried to break up the fight. A person later identified as Trey Bebley pushed La-La back and told her "Move." Annettra Rice told Trey "Don't push her" and Trey Bebley replied "Bitch shut up, we shoot." Takia Rice then looked up and saw Trey Bebley standing over her. Trey Bebley shot Takia Rice one time in the back. Takia Rice tried to stand up and run and Trey Bebley fired a second shot at Takia Rice. This shot missed Takia, and struck the gravel sending gravel flying in the air. According to Takia, Noodles then returned fire and Takia Rice ran and hid. As she did this she heard several more gunshots and heard Trey Bebley say, "Bitch you shot me in my hand, get him he shot me." Takia heard several more gunshots. Takia hid in some bushes until the gunshots stopped. She heard Sanasha Brewer ask the person she thought was Kayla's mother say to please call 911. The person replied, "You was with them. No!" Takia saw several cars flee the parking lot and then heard Sanasha Brewer calling for help. According to Takia, Sanasha Brewer then walked out to West 21st Street and a vehicle traveling westbound on West 21st Street ran over Sanasha. Takia said she looked at a photo array with Detective Harry Dunn, but she was confused by the array because there were people in the array that she knew but were not related to this incident. Takia said she picked the photo of the guy that shot her, but was confused by the array because of the other people she knew that had photographs in the array. I showed Takia Rice a photo array line-up I.D. 109461 which contained a photograph of Trey Bebley and Takia Rice picked photograph number 2, the photo of Trey Bebley, identifying him as the person that shot her in the back.

On July 5th, 2012 Detective Tom Lehn and I took a recorded statement from Sanasha Brewer who said she received a call from Takia Rice at approximately 11:30 p.m. on July 2nd, 2012. Takia told Sanasha she was going to meet Kayla Woods to fight her. Sanasha went to Takia's mother's house and met up with Takia Rice, Annettra Rice, Norrishah Hornes, Larretha Draughon and Tyrone Mills. Takia Rice, Norrishah Hornes, and Sanasha Brewer got into Tyrone Mills' car and drove to the baseball diamonds. Annettra Rice and Larretha Draughon drove to the same location in Annettra's car. When they arrived, Sanasha saw several cars in the lot with several people standing around the cars. The girls exited the car and as the groups converged Sanasha saw two (2) adults whom she believed were Takia's mother and father approach Takia asking, "Who's bumping?" Takia replied "me" and the girls immediately started fighting. As the girls fought she heard several males say nobody better jump in, this is a one on one. The people Sanasha thought were Kayla's mother and father (the father was later positively identified as Aurelious "Howard" Woods) were encouraging Kayla, "Beat that bitch up! Beat her up! You better beat that bitch up!" Sanasha said the girls fought for approximately 5 minutes and Takia and Kayla were lying on the ground when Larretha stepped in and attempted to break up the fight. A person that Sanasha knew to be Kayla Woods' brother pushed Larretha back and told her, "Move bitch, anybody jump in, we poppin' off tops." Annettra Rice replied, "We can shoot, too." Sanasha heard a gunshot, turned around and saw Tyrone Mills return gunfire. Sanasha was shot in the lower left leg in the cross fire. She took cover next to a black SUV and saw Aurelious "Howard" Woods duck behind the black SUV. Sanasha said Aurelious Woods was wearing a jersey which she described as red and white in color with yellow outlining. Sanasha saw Aurelious Woods leaning over the black SUV shooting, "Like you would see the police shooting over a car." When he came back down from the car Sanasha could see that the gun had been fired empty due to the fact that the part of the gun that slides was locked back like as if the magazine was empty.

I swear (affirm), under penalty of perjury as specified by IC 35-44-2-1, that the foregoing representations are true.

After the shooting stopped Sanasha realized she had been shot and asked an older female she believed to be Kayla's mother to call an ambulance (based on age, physical description and clothing description this was believed to be Tammy Carter). That female replied, "No." Sanasha then asked Kayla Woods to call her an ambulance to which Kayla replied, "No, you was with them." Sanasha limped toward West 21st Street. When she got up to West 21st Street Sanasha saw three (3) cars pull out of the Covenant Christian School parking lot. As one of those vehicles approached her, it slowed down near Sanasha and Kayla Woods said, "No, that's not her, come on let's go." Another vehicle drove towards Sanasha and accelerated as it approached her. Sanasha was trying to wave the vehicle down in an effort to get help and when the vehicle, which she described as a brown or tan in color, struck her she saw that Aurelious Woods was driving the vehicle and the person she knew to be Kayla Woods' brother was in the passenger seat. The vehicle struck Sanasha in the left leg, fracturing her lower leg and flipped her up onto the hood of the car. Sanasha was thrown to the pavement striking her head. Sanasha Brewer suffered a through and through gunshot wound to the lower left leg just below the knee, she suffered a fractured lower left leg which required metal plates and screws to repair it, and she also suffered a broken neck.

I then showed Sanasha Brewer photo array line-up I.D. number 109513 and Sanasha indicated that photograph number 4, the photo of Aurelious Woods, was the person she saw shooting the gun and the person driving the vehicle that struck her. I then showed Sanasha Brewer a photograph of Tammy Carter. Sanasha identified Tammy Carter as the person she believed to be Kayla Wood's mother. Sanasha said Tammy Carter had a little dark skinned girl that appeared to be approximately 10 years old with her during the fight and the shooting. Sanasha Brewer could not identify Trey Bebley.

On July 5th, 2012 Detective Tom Lehn and I took a recorded statement from Tyrone Mills a.k.a. "Noodles." Tyrone said he went to the baseball field to watch Takia Rice fight. Tyrone said he was standing back away from the fight and at some point the crowd began to huddle around the girls. Tyrone told the group to spread out. He heard a black male reply, "Shut up before I get to shooting." Tyrone heard 2-3 gunshots and fell to the ground to take cover. When he stood up he returned gunfire with his Glock .40 caliber handgun. Tyrone Mills said he did not see who fired the first shots. Tyrone said he "scooted" on his belly and took cover behind his Chevrolet Malibu. Larretha Draughon had also taken cover behind the same Malibu. Tyrone heard more gunshots and was struck in his right leg. He told Larretha not to move and to take cover. As he was taking cover, Tyrone Mills returned gunfire at the person/s that were firing at him and at some point during the gun battle he saw someone creeping up on his right side, on the opposite side of his car. According to Mills, this person fired another shot at Tyrone and Tyrone fired back firing three (3) shots. Tyrone then heard someone say, "I'm out of ammo, I'm out!" Tyrone, while lying down on the ground, looked underneath his vehicle and saw a pair of white shoes hiding behind one of the other vehicles. Tyrone said he shot at the white shoes. Several vehicles then fled from the parking lot. Tyrone climbed into the driver's side of the vehicle and drove through a field and eventually made his way onto N. Girls School Road.

I swear (affirm), under penalty of perjury as specified by IC 35-44-2-I, that the foregoing representations are true.

Tyrone Mills said that during the gun battle he thought he fired the Glock .40 handgun until the magazine was empty. He said he did not remember what he did with that gun. He also said he had a Smith and Wesson 9mm handgun with him and that he also fired this gun during the gun battle. Tyrone said this gun was on the front passenger seat when he was driving through the field trying to find a way back to the road and the gun "probably flew out of the window." Tyrone called his baby's mother, Latrecia Dupree, drove to her apartment on Embassy Row and picked her up. When Latrecia got in the car she saw the body of Larretha Draughon in the back of the car. Tyrone Mills drove to 6030 Westhaven Drive. I then showed Tyrone Mills a photo array line-up I.D. number 109513 which contained a photograph of Aurelious Woods. Tyrone Mills indicated photos 2 and 4 looked familiar and stated that photograph number 4, the photograph of Aurelious Woods looked familiar, but he was only 40-50% certain that he was one of the persons shooting at him.

On July 6th, 2012 Officer Danny Anderson was stopped in the neighborhood near 6030 Westhaven and was directed to 6030 Westhaven where he recovered a Smith and Wesson 9mm handgun bearing serial number DVR6511. Officer Matthew Addington responded to the scene, photographed the weapon and transported it to the I.M.P.D. Property Room.

On July 6th, 2012 I took a recorded statement from Norrishia Hornes. Norrishia said she, Takia Rice, Tyrone Mills and Sanasha Brewer went to the baseball fields in one car and Annettra Rice and Larretha Draughon went in another car. When they pulled into the parking lot Norrishia saw 5-6 cars parked there and approximately 20 people standing around the cars. In the crowd of twenty (20) people Norrishia saw a black female juvenile who was approximately 10 years old. The girls exited the cars and Takia Rice and Kayla Woods immediately start to fight. During the fight Sanasha saw an older, dark skinned black female holding a Louis Vitton purse, who repeatedly said if anyone interfered she was going to shoot them. The woman implied she had a gun in her purse. A black male that Norrishia believed was Kayla's brother, later identified as Trey Bebley, said "If anyone jumps in [he's] popping." As the fight continued Trey Bebley continued to announce that they had guns and Tyrone Mills replied, "We got guns' too." Norrishia heard a gunshot and turned and saw Trey Bebley with a gun. She stated she did not see Trey Bebley fire the shot. As she turned to run Norrishia saw Tyrone Mills return gunfire. I showed Norrishia Hornes a photo array line-up I.D. 109438. Norrishia indicated photograph number 6, the picture of Trey Bebley looked familiar and she recognized him as being at the fight.

On July 10th, 2012 Detective Tom Lehn and I interviewed Kayla Woods a second time. I read Kayla Woods the Advice of Rights waiver. Kayla Woods indicated that she understood her rights and was willing to give me a statement by signing the waiver of rights. I showed Kayla Woods a photo array, line-up I.D. 109431 which contained a photograph of Tyrone Mills. Kayla Woods picked photograph number 5, the picture of Tyrone Mills identifying him as a person that was shooting a gun. In her second statement Kayla confirmed that her aunt Tammy Carter, who was wearing a white shirt, had her 16 year old daughter Destiny there with her. I then showed Kayla still photographs taken from the sixteen (16) second video which showed a black female wearing a white shirt and holding a large purse. Kayla denied that the person in the video was her aunt Tammy Carter. Kayla said she was on the ground fighting Takia when she heard Annettra Rice say, "It's ok because we got guns" before the shooting started. Kayla maintained that nobody in her group of people had a gun and nobody in her group of people fired a gun and stated that between July 3rd 2012 and July 10th, 2012 she has not heard anyone on her side talk about the shooting or admit to shooting. Kayla Woods surrendered her Apple I-phone 4S to me. I then requested and was granted a valid search warrant on this phone. Detective Brett Seach completed a forensic examination of this cell phone and recovered several items of evidence from the phone, including specifically a text message.

On July 11th, 2012 I contacted Tammy Carter and asked her to come to the Homicide Office to give me a statement. On July 12th, 2012 I researched police reports and found a report dated 07/03/12 under Speedway P.D. case number DP120001599 which indicated Tammy Carter was stopped by Lieutenant Angel Rodriguez and issued several traffic citations. This traffic stop occurred in the 3000 block of North High School Road at 1:34 a.m. On July 12th, 2012 at 10:20 a.m., I took a recorded statement from Tammy Carter. Tammy admitted that she was present during the fight, and that she had her son Jesse Carter and her 16 year old daughter Destiny Carter with her during the fight. Tammy Carter initially denied that her 10 year old daughter McKenlee Scott was with her at the baseball field during the fight and the shooting. I then asked Tammy Carter if she was stopped by Speedway Lieutenant Angel Rodriguez and if she thought he would say that Tammy's 10 year old daughter was in her vehicle. Tammy Carter then admitted that her 10 year old daughter McKenlee Scott was with her at the baseball diamonds and was present during the fight and the shooting. Tammy said during the fight Kayla was getting the better of Takia and La-La didn't like the fact that Takia was getting beat up so she tried to break the fight up and that is when the shots were fired. I then advised Tammy Carter that I would need to interview her 16 year old daughter Destiny and her 10 year old daughter McKenlee, due to the fact they were both witnesses in a homicide. Tammy Carter said she would not bring her children in for me to interview and that she was not going to traumatize her children by putting them through an interview.

On July 12th 2012 I contacted the Marion County Department of Child Services and apprised them of the situation involving juveniles Destiny Carter and McKenlee Scott and the fact that both juveniles were present during the fight and the homicide and that both juveniles could have been shot. DCS initiated a separate investigation and requested that Tammy Carter bring both juveniles into DCS to be interviewed. On July 13th, 2012 forensic interviewer Diane Bowers interviewed McKenlee Scott. McKenlee repeatedly said she did not remember any of the details of the fight or the shooting. McKenlee then said she was too scared to talk about any of the details. Fatality Specialist Dae Smiley interviewed Destiny

Carter. Destiny also said she did not remember anything about the fight or the shooting. It appeared to the affiant from the statements taken that both children had been coached.

The Indianapolis-Marion County Forensic Services Agency completed ballistics testing/comparison of the Glock model 23 .40 caliber handgun serial number AMD322US to the bullet recovered from Larretha Draughon at autopsy. This weapon was eliminated as having been the weapon that fired the bullet that killed Larretha Draughon. The Indianapolis-Marion County Forensics Agency completed ballistics testing/comparison of the Smith and Wesson 9mm handgun bearing serial number DVR6511 to the bullet recovered from Larretha Draughon at autopsy. This weapon was also eliminated as having been the weapon that fired the bullet that killed Larretha Draughon. No bullets were recovered from any other victim – all victims sustained through and through gunshot wounds. The preliminary firearms findings indicate there were three (3) weapons fired at the scene. Two (2) were .40 caliber and one was a 9 mm. Two of three firearms have been recovered, a Glock .40 and a Smith and Wesson 9mm. The round recovered from Larretha Draughon, the deceased victim, was determined to be a .40 caliber but was fired from a weapon that has not been recovered.

An autopsy was performed on the person of Larretha Draughon by forensic pathologist Amanda Brewer. The cause of death was ruled a gunshot wound to the head and the manner of death was ruled a homicide.

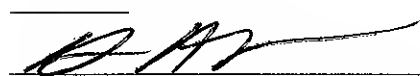

Based upon the foregoing, the affiant believes that the actions taken by Kayla Woods and Takia Rice caused and/or induced the subsequent shootings of Larretha Draughon, Sanasha Brewer and Jasmine Jennings. Not only did Woods and Rice agree to fight one another but they agreed upon a date, time and place. They also were each aware that other individuals were coming to be present and/or assist them in the fight and knew weapons were being brought and/or were present. The affiant also believes the evidence shows that Trey Bebley, Tyrone Mills and Aurelious "Howard" Woods brought firearms to the location of the fight, that Bebley and Mills made statements at the scene about having firearms with them, and that Bebley, Mills and Woods all fired shots at the scene. Had Bebley, Mills and Woods not brought firearms with them to the fight, the shootings could not have occurred. Further, the affiant believes, based upon witness statements, that Trey Bebley shot Takia Rice and that Aurelious Woods drove the vehicle and intentionally struck Sanasha Brewer.

All of the above events occurred in Marion County, Indiana.

I swear (affirm), under penalty of perjury as specified by IC 35-44-2-1, that the foregoing representations are true.
